Art Unit: 3653

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1, 3, 4, 6 through 10, 12, 14, 15, 17 through 21 and 27 through 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Farquhar in view of Miller '681 both of record.

Farquhar teaches everything except the carton having at least one arcuate corner and an aperture at a juncture of the arcuate corner with a side of the carton.

Miller '681 teaches such a dispensing carton with at least one arcuate corner (see Fig. 3 and Fig. 5). Miller '681 also shows an aperture on each side of each rounded corner.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide the carton of Farquhar with at least one arcuate corner and to have apertures at the arcuate corners as taught by Miller '681.

3. Claims 25 and 26 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
4. Claims 2, 5, 11, 13, 16 and 22 through 24 are allowed.

Art Unit: 3653

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 3, 4, 6 through 10, 12, 14, 15 and 17 through 21 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to David H Bollinger whose telephone number is 703-308-1113. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm.
